“ Goodbye sweet sister. I am missing you terribly. I remember our phone conversations and our many trips to visit our other sisters. You and I could get so tickled when we were not supposed to! One special memory I have dates way back to when we lived in Floyd and your first child, Debra Custer, was a baby. I remember you rocking her and singing, "Will There Be Any Stars in my Crown?" Well, I am sure you will have all the stars you want in your crown. Rest in peace, and enjoy your heavenly home. Love forever, Judy Dickerson
